WEDDING REGULATIONS 2020 INNISWOOD METRO GARDENS

The Rose Garden at Inniswood Metro Gardens could be an appropriate venue if you are planning a small intimate wedding. There is no fee to have a wedding at Inniswood.

Keep in mind that Inniswood is a public park--there will be others enjoying the park during your wedding. Having a wedding in a public park does not guarantee control over things like sound and privacy and parkgoers may be curious about what is taking place.

- The Rose Garden is available on a first-come, first served basis and cannot be reserved.
- Please call 614-895-6216 (Tuesday through Friday) prior to your wedding to avoid conflicts with regularly scheduled events at Inniswood Metro Gardens that would take precedence or if you are planning anything unusual such as hot air balloons or horse drawn carriages that may violate Metro Parks' Rules and Regulations.

- Bringing in and setting up seating, rearranging memorial benches or adding decorations of any kind (including throwing confetti, glitter, birdseed, flower petals, releasing butterflies, etc.) is not permitted nor are public address systems, loud music, and alcohol. Bridal bouquets are allowed.
- Your wedding size is limited to 50 people including bridal party, official, and guests; you are responsible for all arrangements.
- Wedding photography can only take place in the Rose Garden.
- We suggest that you have an alternative location in case of inclement weather (rain, extreme temperatures); there are no indoor facilities at Inniswood Metro Gardens.
- Vehicles are not allowed on sidewalks and paths.
